Avoid Wrongful Termination Lawsuits: Strategies to Keep Your Managers Out of Legal Trouble

March 23, 2009
Time: 1:00 pm ET (12:00 pm CT, 11:00 am MT, 10:00 am PT)
Length: 1 hour 30 minutes

Live Teleconference: $199.00  Live Teleconference + CD: $248 + Shipping: $7.00

Benefits
This teleconference will review tried-and-true methods for eliminating employment litigation risks, will build managers’ confidence in dealing with a range of common-place employee issues, and sharpen their understanding of workplace practices and policies which will dramatically reduce exposure to litigation risks for themselves and their companies.

Agenda
I. Training for Effective Workplace Policies and Practices
II. Progressive Discipline
III. Investigations
IV. Retaliation
V. Termination

Faculty

Daniel T. Berkley, Gordon & Rees, LLP
Daniel T. Berkley

- Practices employment and labor law for more than 37 years
- Frequent guest lecturer at University of Michigan School of Law and University of California’s Boalt School of Law
- Speaker and lecturer at various industry association conferences
- Published in the Journal of Technology & Hospitality and has written numerous human resources and labor and employment articles
Joint Labor Counsel for the CA Association of Health Facilities

Sponsored by Lorman Education Services

Register Online - Teleconference only

Register Online - Teleconference and CD Recording